ODD FELLOWS' BUILDING.

Bids for the new Odd Fellows' Building were opened yesterday afternoon at the office of Architect Traphagen. John Oudekirk was the lowest bidder, $45,733. The next lowest bidder was the firm of Lucas Brothers, with $46,838, while the A. Harrison Mill Company bid $49,000. The only other bidders were Fred Harrison, $51,975 and J. F. Bowler, $52,800. The old building has been cleared away and the prospect is that work on the structure will be under way before the end of the month.

KAHUKU RANCH WITHDRAWN.

It is now stated that Col. Samuel Norris has withdrawn Kahuku Ranch from the market. It has been extensively advertised for sale of late. A Chicago real estate firm issued a very romantically written description of the property some time ago. About four years ago J. O. Carter as agent for Col. Norris sold the property, but Col. Norris had a prejudice against the purchaser and repudiated the sale. The matter was taken into the courts, but Col. Norris won out. Kahuku ranch is a tract of 186,000 acres in Kauai.

PUPILS STUDY A RABID DOG.

Children of Montclair, N. J., are Taught to Guard Against Danger.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., April 25.—Pupils of the high, the grammar and Chestnut street schools, at the invitation of a veterinary surgeon of this place, have visited the veterinary hospital conducted by the surgeon to observe the condition and actions of a rabid dog.

The animal under observation is a valuable bird dog, which was bitten recently and on Tuesday last was attacked with rabies. "My object in inviting the school children," said the surgeon, "is to guard them against future danger. A rabid dog never attracts attention on its travels. There is no frothing at the mouth, as most people are led to believe, and this fact alone is one reason why I asked the school children to visit the hospital."

It was intended to again exhibit the dog, but the animal had to be killed. Between 600 and 700 persons saw the dog.

EXPECT TO SEE ROOSEVELT.

France Eager to Have President Exchange Visits With Loubet.

PARIS, May 1.—One of the first questions put by members of President Loubet's suite, which arrived from Algeria rather the worse for wear this morning, was whether there was any truth in the rumor that President Roosevelt would probably visit Paris officially in the coming July. French officials consider it entirely natural that President Roosevelt should share in the present traveling fit which seems to have seized the majority of the world's rulers. There is, however, a further reason why they are inclined to credit the report—because President Loubet's return visit would fall at the time of the opening of the St. Louis exposition. According to one wiseacre writing in today's papers the French commission now en route to St. Louis will undertake the delicate task of arranging an exchange of visits between the American and the French president, which undoubtedly would be desired more generally among the French people than the present Edward-Loubet celebrations.

FOUND A PORTRAIT.

"I'm getting painfully careless, my dear. I've just found a portrait of George Washington in my coat pocket that has been there for the last 10 days." "Well, I don't see anything serious about that." "Don't you, my dear? I'm glad to hear it. You see the portrait is a part of the stamp on that letter you gave me to mail last week."
